

U.S. Department of State Chart on Deepwater Horizon Oil Spill Response:
International Offers of Assistance from Governments and International Bodies
June 25, 2010 2:51 PM

Country/Entity	Date of Offer	Resources Offered	Status of Offer	Reimbursement Required?
Belgium	15 June 2010	Skimmers	Under consideration	Yes
	14 June 2010	Fire Boom	Under consideration
		Technical expertise	Under consideration
		Vessel	Under consideration
Canada		Dispersant	Under consideration	Yes
		Containment and Fire Boom	Accepted 9,843 ft containment boom accepted June 4. Arrived on scene and now in the field for staging. *More boom offered 14 June, under consideration.
	30 April 2010	People/technical	Unknown. This offer was made directly from British Columbia to the Gulf Coast States.
	23 June 2010	Skimmers	Under consideration
China via IMO	14 June 2010	Containment and Fire Boom	Under consideration.	Yes
Croatia	5 May 2010	People/technical – proposed solution	Proposed solution has been shown to engineers and technical experts, will be incorporated into response as needed.	Yes
Denmark		Containment Boom	Under consideration	Yes
El Salvador	23 June 2010	Skimmers	Under consideration	Yes
European Maritime Safety Agency	13 May 2010	Containment Boom	Under consideration	Yes
		Skimmers
		Vessels	Under consideration. Only the USCG can accept this vessel offer.
		Sweeping arms	Under consideration
France		Dispersant	Declined. These chemicals are not approved for use in the U.S.	Yes

U.S. Department of State Chart on Deepwater Horizon Oil Spill Response:
International Offers of Assistance from Governments and International Bodies
June 25, 2010 2:51 PM

	19 May 2010	Containment and Fire Boom	Under consideration. *More boom offered 14 June, Under consideration.
	18 May 2010	People/technical	Under consideration
		Bird rehabilitation equipment	Under consideration
Germany	12 May 2010	Containment and Fire Boom	Under consideration *More boom offered 15 June, under consideration.	Yes
		People/technical	Under consideration
International Maritime Organization (IMO)	05 May 2010	People/technical	Accepted. Requested IMO to send communication to all 169 Member States and the maritime community generally regarding use of websites provided by the U.S. to assist in safe navigation in the Gulf of Mexico	n/a
Ireland	30 April 2010	General offer of assistance	Under consideration	Yes
Israel (via IMO)	14 June 2010	Containment Boom	Under consideration.	Yes
Italy	17 June 2010	Facilitation - private companies offering vessels, people/technical	Under consideration
Japan	12 May 2010	Containment Boom	Under consideration *More boom offered 22 June	22 June offer - Yes
	22 June 2010	People/technical – experts from the Japan Coast Guard	Under consideration	Yes
	22 June 2010	Skimmers	Under Consideration	Yes
Joint UNEP OCHA Environment Unit	29 April 2010	People/technical – technical and resource facilitation	Under consideration	Yes
Kenya (via IMO)	14 June 2010	Fire Boom	Under consideration.	Yes
Mexico	03 May 2010	Dispersant	Under consideration	Boom was

U.S. Department of State Chart on Deepwater Horizon Oil Spill Response:
International Offers of Assistance from Governments and International Bodies
June 25, 2010 2:51 PM

		Containment Boom	BP purchased 13,780 feet of boom and two skimmers in early May. Arrived in field and now on scene.	offered gratis, other materials and equipment were purchased
		Skimmers
Monitoring and Information Center (EU MIC)	30 Apr 2010	People/technical – coordination of offers among member states	Accepted	n/a
Netherlands	30 April 2010	Vessel w/ storage capacity	Under consideration	Yes
		Skimmers	Accepted on May 23. BP purchased three rigid Koseq sweeping arms accepted May 23.
		People/technical	Under consideration
Norway	30 April 2010	Dispersant	Under consideration	Yes
		Containment and Fire Boom	Purchased by BP directly
		Skimmers	Eight skimming systems accepted in early May
		People/technical	Under consideration
Portugal	21 Jun 2010	high-capacity skimmers/collectors (Model: TRANSREC 250)	Under Consideration	Yes
Romania	30 April 2010	General offer of support	Under Consideration	Yes
Russia	7 May 2010	Containment Boom	Under consideration	Yes
		Vessels
		Oil storage containers
		People/technical
Republic of Korea	2 May 2010	Dispersant	Under consideration	Yes
		Containment Boom	Under consideration
		Skimmers	Under consideration
		People/technical	Under consideration
Spain	30 April 2010	Containment and Fire Boom	Under consideration *More boom offered 14 June,	Yes

U.S. Department of State Chart on Deepwater Horizon Oil Spill Response:
International Offers of Assistance from Governments and International Bodies
June 25, 2010 2:51 PM

			under consideration.
		Sweeping arms	Under consideration
Sweden	30 April 2010	Containment and Fire Boom	Under consideration	Yes
		Skimmers – Three total	*More skimmers offered 15 June, under consideration.
		Vessels – One Combination vessel, three small recovery boats	Under consideration *Another vessel offered 15 June, under consideration
		People/technical	Under consideration
Tunisia (via IMO)	14 June 2010	Fire Boom	Under consideration	Yes
Turkey	23 June 2010	Skimmers	Under consideration	Yes
Qatar	14 June 2010	Containment boom	Under consideration	Yes
	22 June 2010	Skimmers	Under consideration
UAE	10 May 2010	Dispersant	Under consideration	Yes
		Containment Boom	Under consideration
		Skimmers	Under consideration
		People/technical	Under consideration
United Kingdom	30 April 2010	Dispersant	Under consideration. Only 11 tons of chemicals offered are licensed for use in the U.S.	Yes
		Containment Boom	Under consideration
		Vessel/ skimming arm	Under consideration
Vietnam	05 May 2010	Vessel w/ sweeping arms	Under consideration	Yes